

Project Timeline

The project was started January 2009. It was reviewed by two design panels in 2011, with unanimous support in second panel. The design panel in their summary encouraged the applicant to explore revisions to the office building's massing. This has led to a third submission with a new design for Tower B and improvements to tower A&C which do not significantly alter their design.

