

SHADOW ANALYSIS

Shadow studies have been completed in order to determine whether the tower casts shadows across public open space. Naturally, there will be an impact from the tower at street level on public sidewalks. There are no public park spaces that will be affected by this development.

