The City of Vancouver has received an application to rezone City owned lands at 625-777 Pacific Street (Granville Loops) from DD (Downtown District) to CD-1 (Comprehensive Development) District to allow for four residential towers on four adjacent sites which will be created once the circular bridge ramps (the Loops) are removed and Continental and Rolston streets are extended south to Pacific Street. The proposed development includes:

- Two strata residential towers 395 feet in height
- One mixed rental-residential and strata residential tower 250 feet in height
- One rental residential tower 250 feet in height to contain a childcare centre and social housing
- Total floor area of 89,489 sq. m (920,266 sq. ft.)

The application is being considered under the Granville Loops Policy Plan.
